Ownership, Copyright and Trademarks

The content on the Site and Services, including all information, data, logos, marks, designs, graphics, pictures, sound files, other files, and their selection and arrangement, is called "Content". Content provided by Users is called "User Content". User Content is that User's property.

Other than the User Content, the Site, the Services, all Content and all software available on the Site or used to create and operate the Site are the property of EDEXIS or its licensors, and are protected by US and international copyright and other intellectual property laws, and all rights to the Site, such Content and such software are expressly reserved. All trademarks, registered trademarks, product names and company names or logos mentioned in the Site are the property of their respective owners. Reference to any products, Services, processes or other information, by trade name, trademark, manufacturer, supplier or otherwise does not constitute or imply endorsement, sponsorship or recommendation thereof by EDEXIS.

You may not frame or utilize framing techniques to enclose any trademark, logo, or other proprietary information (including images, text, page layout, and forms) of EDEXIS without the prior written consent of EDEXIS. You may not use any metatags or any other "hidden text" utilizing our name, trademarks, service marks, or trade names without the prior written consent of EDEXIS. You may not use our names, trademarks, service marks, trade names, logos, slogans, or proprietary graphics as any part of a link without the prior written consent of EDEXIS. Any unauthorized use terminates any license or permission granted by EDEXIS. Except as expressly stated above, nothing contained herein shall be construed as granting, by implication, estoppel or otherwise, any license or right to the content of the Site.

All EDEXIS trademarks, service marks, trade names, logos, slogans, and other identifying marks appearing on the Site are the sole and exclusive property of EDEXIS. You may not copy or use any of EDEXIS' marks or any marks confusingly similar to EDEXIS' marks without the prior written consent of EDEXIS, nor may you use EDEXIS' marks in any manner that discredits or disparages EDEXIS. Our License of Content to You

EDEXIS TERMS OF USE

EDEXIS grants you a limited, revocable, non-exclusive, non-sublicensable license to access the Site and to view, copy and print the portions of the Content available to you on the Site. Such license is subject to these Terms, and specifically conditioned upon the following: (i) you may only view, copy and print such portions of the Content for your own use; (ii) you may not modify or otherwise make derivative works of the Site or the Content, or reproduce, distribute or display the Site or any Content (except for page caching) except as expressly permitted in these Terms; (iii) you may not remove or modify any copyright, trademark, or other proprietary notices that have been placed in the Content; (iv) you may not use any data mining, robots or similar data gathering or extraction methods; (v) you may not use the Site or the Content other than for its intended purpose; and (vi) you agree not to circumvent, disable or otherwise interfere with the security-related features of this Site or the Services found at this Site (including without limitation, those features that prevent or restrict the use or copying of any Content).

Except as expressly permitted above, any use of any portion of the Content without the prior written permission of its owner is strictly prohibited and will terminate the license granted in this Section, this Agreement and your account with us. Any such unauthorized use may also violate applicable laws, including without limitation copyright and trademark laws. Unless explicitly stated herein, nothing in these Terms may be construed as conferring any license to intellectual property rights, whether by estoppels, implication or otherwise. The license in this Section is revocable by EDEXIS at any time.

Upon termination of your Account, your right to use our Services and data shall immediately cease. You shall have no right to any unread or unsent messages or data after termination, and we will have no obligation thereafter to forward any unread or unsent messages or data to You or to any third party. User agrees that following the closure or termination of User's account for any reason, we may elect to delete or otherwise remove any or all User data records from our servers at any time after termination or closure of User's Account. User agrees that EDEXIS shall not be liable for any damages (including consequential or special damages) arising out of any such deletion, and User hereby agrees to waive any claims with respect to any such data deletion, whether based on contract, tort or other grounds, even if EDEXIS has been advised of the possibility of damages.

You represent and warrant that your use of the Site and the Content will be consistent with this license and will not infringe or violate the rights of any other party or breach any contract or legal duty to any other parties, or violate any applicable law.

Providing a Reliable and Secure Service

We take reliability and security seriously. We put a great deal of effort into ensuring that our service operates all the time and that it is a secure environment for your data. To safeguard your information, EDEXIS uses restrictive firewalls and encryption methods to protect stored data and uses a minimum of 256-bit SSL certificates to encrypt data transferred between you and the Site. However, no computer network is perfectly secure or reliable. The internet is an inherently insecure medium, and the reliability of hosting Services, internet intermediaries, your internet service provider, and other service providers cannot be assured. When you use our site or our services, you accept these risks, and the responsibility for choosing to use any technology that may not provide perfect security or reliability.

Links to Other Sites

The Site may contain links to third-party websites ("Third-Party Sites") and third-party content ("Third-Party Content") as a service to those interested in this information. Third-Party Sites may include payment processors and other payment intermediaries that you may use in connection with your use of the Site. Your use of links to Third-Party Sites, and any Third-Party Content or service provided there at your own risk. EDEXIS does not monitor or have any control over, and makes no claim or representation regarding Third-Party Content or Third-Party Sites. EDEXIS provides these links only as a convenience, and a link to a Third-Party Site or Third-Party Content does not imply EDEXIS's endorsement, adoption or sponsorship of, or affiliation with, such Third-Party Site or Third-Party Content. EDEXIS accepts no responsibility for reviewing changes or updates to, or the quality, content, policies, nature or reliability of, Third-Party Content, Third-Party Sites, or websites linking to the Site. When you leave the Site, our Terms and Policies no longer govern. You should review applicable Terms and Policies, including privacy and data gathering practices of any Third-Party Site and should make whatever investigation you feel necessary or appropriate before proceeding with any transaction with any third party.

Advertisements and Promotions

EDEXIS may run advertisements and promotions from third parties on the Site and through the Services. Your business dealings or correspondence with, or participation in promotions of, advertisers other than EDEXIS, and any terms, conditions, warranties or representations associated with such dealings, are solely between you and such third party. EDEXIS is not responsible or liable for any loss or damage of any sort incurred as the result of any such dealings or as the result of the presence of third-party advertisers on the Site or through the Services.

User grants to EDEXIS a non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use its business or trade name, logo, or brand on EDEXIS's website, promotional emails, and other advertising or marketing materials.

Document Uploads; Modifications by EDEXIS

EDEXIS TERMS OF USE

Your use of EDEXIS services may require you to upload certain documents to us in Portable Document Format (PDF) or other approved electronic formats. EDEXIS may use a variety of software applications and tools to modify your uploaded documents to conform with certain standards or requirements, such as flattening PDF files, removing colors by converting files to black and white, compressing files to reduce file sizes, and other similar file modifications. These modifications could result in changes to the files you upload to EDEXIS when such files are later viewed on the Site, printed by EDEXIS, or delivered by EDEXIS to one or more third parties who receive a copy of the files or documents as part of a transaction you have ordered from EDEXIS.

Mailing Services

We may offer various EDEXIS mailing service options to You, including Aggregated Mailing and Daily Mailing services. Aggregated Mailing combines multiple orders from different senders destined for the same recipient into one mailing envelope or package. Daily Mailing orders ship in separate envelopes or packages and are not aggregated with other orders. We produce mailings during our business week (Monday through Friday). We do not produce mailings on weekends, holidays, or other days the United States Post Office is closed. We may establish various cutoff times for You to submit mailings to Us. Orders received by us after any such cutoff time will be processed the following business day. We may display cutoff times or other similar notices on our website during the order process. For high-priority orders with production date requirements, You must contact us and confirm we can accept such orders prior to submission. Users submitting orders to us via API or other electronic system interface may not receive cutoff time notices, and such orders received by us after any cutoff time will be produced the following business day. Mailing services are subject to our Service-Level Agreement (SLA). Please review our Service Level Agreement for additional details.

Document Printing and Assembly; Errors; Audits

Our mailing production process involves the printing, collating, sorting, inserting, packaging, sealing and other actions handled by both automated equipment and manual document processing. Our production processes may cause a variety of common and uncommon errors, including unsealed envelopes, misfolded or misaligned documents, multiple or incomplete document insertion, light or dark printed page images, missing pages, double printing ("ghost printing" or "ghosting"), and other known and unknown problems. We do not manually inspect every page of documents we print and produce for You. We perform several manual spot audits per day on randomly selected document mailing packets during our mail fulfillment job runs in an attempt to identify a variety of printing issues. Our manual audits are not designed to read the actual content of any document. We audit documents to attempt to quickly identify errors caused by printer toner, ink, drums, rollers, fusers, and other equipment used in the production of the documents. You acknowledge that we may need to view documents you submit to us during our production process and while performing any audits we require. You further acknowledge that we may not be able to identify every document error prior to mailing. You agree to hold us harmless for any actual errors which may occur in our production processes, including "ghosting" of some portion of your document(s) on another unrelated order, or the printing of a "ghosting" image on one or more sheets of Your documents from another order. If your order contains documents with sensitive, confidential, or personally identifiable information, You acknowledge the various risks of errors stated herein and agree to accept such risks when submitting an order to Us.

Service Level Agreement (SLA)

We use reasonable efforts to maintain general availability of our services with a target uptime of 99% each month, excluding scheduled maintenance, emergency maintenance, and events beyond our reasonable control. In the event of extended service unavailability, we may, at our sole discretion, provide a non-refundable future service credit as an exclusive remedy. On scheduled mail production dates, we use reasonable efforts to produce all Daily Mail orders received by us prior to any cutoff time(s) by 3:00 p.m. local time, and to deposit such mailings at a U.S. Post Office facility by 5:00 p.m. local time. For all Aggregated Mail orders, following our ordinary business practices, we use reasonable efforts to produce such orders on their scheduled production date, and place such orders in the designated outgoing US Postal acceptance location inside our production facility for collection by a US Postal Service carrier. At our sole discretion, we may elect to deliver some or all of the Aggregated Mailing orders we produce each day to the United States Post Office when time and resources are reasonably available.

Mailing orders which are unable to be produced or deposited with the US Postal Service on their scheduled production date, whether caused by known or unknown events such as high order volume, printer or other electronic device problems, power or Internet service outages, or any other issues, will be produced and deposited on a future business day with priority. While EDEXIS makes reasonable efforts to print and mail each order received by us prior to any defined cutoff time(s) on its scheduled production date, we do not guarantee same-day order fulfillment. Processing times may vary due to equipment issues, order volume, printing volume, courier delays, or other factors. EDEXIS shall not be liable for any damages, losses, or penalties resulting from any delayed order fulfillment.

Warranty Disclaimer

The Site, the Content and the Services provided by the Site are provided to you on an "as is" basis without warranties from EDEXIS of any kind, either express or implied. EDEXIS expressly disclaims all other warranties, express or implied, including without limitation implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, title and non-infringement. EDEXIS does not represent or warrant that our Site, Services or Content are accurate, uninterrupted, free of viruses or other harmful components, complete, reliable, current or error-free, and expressly disclaims any warranty or representation as to the accuracy or proprietary character of the Site, the Services or the Content or any portion thereof.

Limitation of Liability

In no event shall EDEXIS be liable for any breach in security caused by a third party arising out of or relating to any attempt to utilize any feature of the Site or any Services.

In no event shall EDEXIS, its vendors or any other entity affiliated with EDEXIS be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, special or consequential damages (including but not limited to damages for lost profits, lost data, or loss of use) arising out of or relating to use of or inability to use the Site, any Service, or any information contained within the Site or stored or maintained by EDEXIS. This limitation applies whether the alleged liability is based on contract, tort, negligence, strict liability, or any other basis, even if EDEXIS has been advised of the possibility of such damages. Because some jurisdictions do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, the liability of EDEXIS in such jurisdictions shall be limited to the maximum extent permitted by law.

In no event shall the total liability of EDEXIS, its parent, subsidiaries, or affiliates or their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, successors, subsidiaries, divisions, distributors, suppliers, or affiliates, to you for all damages, losses, and causes of action resulting from your use of this Site or any Service, whether in contract, tort (including, but not limited to, negligence) or otherwise, exceed the amount you paid to EDEXIS in connection with the applicable event, or purchase giving rise to such liability. Without limiting the foregoing, in no event shall EDEXIS, its parent, subsidiaries or affiliates or their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, successors, subsidiaries, divisions, distributors, suppliers, or affiliates, have any liability for any damages or losses arising out of or otherwise incurred in connection with the loss of any data or information contained in your account or otherwise stored by or on behalf of EDEXIS.

Indemnity

You shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless EDEXIS, its affiliates or subsidiaries, their sponsors, contractors, advertisers, vendors, or their partners, and any of their successors or assigns, and any of their respective officers, directors, agents or employees (the "Released Parties") from any loss, damages, liabilities, costs, expenses, claims and proceedings arising out of or relating to: (A) your or your Customer's use of the Site, the Services or the Content; and (B) any alleged breach of these Terms by you.

Communications

Notices that we give you (other than notice of amendment of these Terms, which is discussed in the introduction of these Terms) may be provided in any of the following ways. First, we may email you at the contact information you provide in your Registration Data. Second, we may post a notice on the Site. When we post notices on the Site, we post them in the area of the Site suitable to the notice. It is your responsibility to periodically review the Site for notices.

At our discretion, any notice may be deposited into the United States Postal Service or other courier, with postage or charges fully paid, and addressed to User at the address on file for User's Account. User shall at all times be responsible for notifying EDEXIS of any changes in its email or postal mailing addresses.

Certain documents and correspondence to EDEXIS may be delivered via email at support@edexis.com. User should contact EDEXIS by phone at (209) 223-3461 for guidance prior to mailing or delivering any required notice, if desired. For proper identification, User must clearly note its account name, phone number, and account number on any correspondence. All written notices and correspondence to EDEXIS shall be mailed to: EDEX Information Systems, Post Office Box 665, Jackson, CA 95642.

International Use

We make no representation that information on this Site is appropriate or available for use outside the United States. Those who choose to access this Site from outside the United States do so on their own initiative and are responsible for compliance with local laws, if and to the extent local laws are applicable and agree to indemnify EDEXIS and the other Released Parties for your failure to comply with any such laws.

Applicable Law and Venue

The Site is controlled by EDEXIS and managed from its offices in California. You and EDEXIS both benefit from establishing a predictable legal environment in regard to the Site. Therefore, you and EDEXIS explicitly agree that all disputes, claims or other matters arising from or relating to your use of the Site will be governed by the laws of the State of California and the federal laws of the United States of America applicable therein. You hereby waive any argument that any such court does not have jurisdiction over you or such dispute or that venue in any such court is not appropriate or convenient. You hereby agree that any claim, action or suit you may file against EDEXIS shall be filed and adjudicated in the courts of Amador County, California. EDEXIS will be entitled to recover its court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in successfully proving any breach of any term of these Terms.

Force Majeure

Our performance may be delayed or prevented by events beyond our reasonable control, including but not limited to natural disasters, pandemics, wildfires, war, terrorism, equipment failure, postal service delays or interruptions, widespread power outages, internet outages and disruptions, and other known or unknown causes. EDEXIS shall not be liable for any damages, losses, or penalties resulting from these and other similar events.

Miscellaneous

If any provision of these Terms shall be deemed unlawful, void, or for any reason unenforceable, that provision shall be deemed severable from these Terms and shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any remaining provisions. EDEXIS may assign any or all of its rights hereunder to any party without your consent. You are not permitted to assign any of your rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of EDEXIS, and any such attempted assignment will be void and unenforceable. These Terms constitute the entire agreement between you and EDEXIS regarding your use of the Site, and supersede all prior or contemporaneous communications whether electronic, oral or written between you and EDEXIS regarding your use of the Site. EDEXIS in its sole discretion may amend these Terms, and your use of the Site and Services after such amendment is posted on the Site will constitute acceptance of it by you. If any term in these Terms is declared unlawful, void or for any reason unenforceable by any court, then such term will be deemed severable from the remaining Terms and will not affect the validity and enforceability of such remaining terms. The Section headings in these Terms are for convenience only and must not be given any legal import.

This Site may contain typographical errors or inaccuracies and may not be complete or current. On the Site some products may appear larger or smaller than their actual size. EDEXIS therefore reserves the right to correct any errors, inaccuracies or omissions and to change or update information at any time without prior notice. Please note that such errors, inaccuracies or omissions may relate to pricing and availability, and we reserve the right to cancel or refuse to accept any order placed based on incorrect pricing or availability information. We apologize for any inconvenience. All of your representations or warranties set forth in these Terms, shall survive indefinitely, or as permitted by law.
